Math Example

If the text doesn't highlight pink as above, go back and click the Voice Speech Button and try again.

7. Click Voice Speech Button Once

8. Text should now read aloud.

TIPS:

It may be that the computer is reading a portion you did not want read. If so, you can wait until it gets to the correct section, or, stop and start over (being careful to highlight only the section you want read).

To get the computer to stop reading, click the Voice Speech Button twice.
